Thursday 19th October

Dear Parents,

Academy conversion
Meeting : Monday 13th November 2017 - 2.45 pm

You may recall I wrote to you last June to inform you of the governor's desire for our school to become an academy and join the East Midlands Education Trust (EMET) alongside other schools in the Kimberley and Nuthall area.

For the benefit of our new parents, there is a copy of that letter on our website under the letters section.

Since then I am pleased to say that the Department for Education has approved our request to join EMET subject to a formal consultation with our stakeholders, our parents and staff. Consequently, on behalf of the governors, I would like to offer you the opportunity to express your views on this proposal and I ask you to do so by sharing your thoughts in writing by letter or email office@kimberley-pri.notts.sch.uk.

To help you form a view of this proposal you are invited to a meeting at the school on 13th November 2017 at 2:45 pm in the school hall. The CEO of EMET, Mr Rob McDonough will be present as will the chair and vice chair of governors (Alison Gray and Emma Milne). There will be a short presentation of the proposal followed by the opportunity to ask questions. There is also a useful Q&A document which covers most of the common questions raised about an academy conversion under the letters section of the website. If you are unable to make this meeting but would like the chance to discuss the proposal, I will be able to answer questions on Parents' Evening on the 6th and 9th November.

Once our consultation period closes on the 24th November 2017, all of your contributions will be shared with our governors and I will write to you again to let you know of their thinking.

Yours sincerely,

Lisa Turner-Rowe
Headteacher
